Secretary/Treasurer Report

Timesheets and bills: signed by Supervisor.

Road master report: see attachment

Emergency Management:

Planning Commission Report:

As Chair, James Schwartz made a blanket statement to the public to make it clear that the Planning Commission would only be answering questions as they relate to the scope of the duties of the Planning Commission. Limestone Township Officials can only control the aspects of the community that pertain to Ordinances, Resolutions and Stormwater and Land Development.

The Board gave conditional approval to the New Berlin Storage Facility.

New Business:

Rich suggested meeting with John Marino of Northeast Inspection Consultants as a possible partner in the future to replace COG.

Code Enforcement:

There was one permit issued to Amos Zimmerman for a horse barn.

Public Comment:

Jen Colna asked the supervisors about an ethics issue in relation to the Planning Commission Chair, James Schwartz and the New Berlin Storage Project. As the Chair Jim runs the meeting and asked Carles Axtman questions in relation to the plan. Jen felt that he should not have run the meeting as he was the one that sold that tract of land to James O'Brien for this project. She felt that there was bias and Jim should have been removed from the Planning Board for his conduct.

Teresa stated that Jim did not make any motions or vote in any way for or against the project as her notes reflected that Phares Horning and Donald Heckman made the motions to give conditional approval to the project.

Unfinished Business:

Meeting concluded at 7:20pm.

Next meeting: December 17, 2024

Respectfully submitted,

Teresa Haines

Secretary
